Effective Date: June 5, 2004

Chapter 42 STATE OWNERSHIP OF SUBMERGED LAND UNDERLYING NAVIGABLE WATERS

Requires the commissioner of natural resources to identify water in the state that was navigable at the time Alaska became a state for the purpose of identifying state-owned submerged lands. Requires notice to Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act corporations that state-owned submerged lands may have been erroneously conveyed by the federal government. (HCS SB 305(FIN))

Effective Date: September 2, 2004

Chapter 43 UNIVERSITY OF ALASKA CLAIMS OF PERMANENT FUND DIVIDENDS

Provides that a charge to an individual by the University of Alaska is in default after payment is 180 days past due. Establishes procedures whereby, upon a default, the university may take an individual's permanent fund dividend. Requires the university to notify the individual of the claim. Permits the individual to request a hearing on the claim. (CSSB 393(FIN))

Effective Date: September 2, 2004

Chapter 44 OVERTAKING OR PASSING PARKED EMERGENCY VEHICLES

Requires operators of vehicles to move over or slow down when overtaking or passing a parked emergency vehicle displaying flashing emergency lights on a highway. Provides penalties for violations. (SCS CSHB 438(STA))

Effective Date: September 2, 2004

Chapter 45 EXTEND ALASKA RAILROAD TO LOWER 48 STATES

Provides authority to the Alaska Railroad Corporation to identify a transportation corridor and to acquire land to extend the railroad to the Alaska-Canada border. Authorizes the Alaska Railroad Corporation to investigate extension of the railroad through Canada to connect with the North American rail system. (CSSB 31(RES) am)

Effective Date: September 2, 2004

Chapter 46 EXTENSION OF ALASKA RAILROAD AND RAILROAD TASK FORCE

Permits the Alaska Railroad Corporation to acquire land for, provide financing for, and construct a rail line and provide rail service to the Fort Greely area. Authorizes the corporation to issue bonds in a principal amount not to exceed $500,000,000 to finance the rail line and related facilities. Requires the corporation to enter into an agreement with the United States government that will provide revenue for the bonds before they may be issued. Establishes in the legislative branch the Railroad Planning, Platting, and Land Use Regulation Task Force to consider whether and to what extent municipal planning, platting, and land use regulation should apply to interests in land owned by the railroad corporation. (CSSB 395(FIN) am)

Effective Date: June 5, 2004

Chapter 47 CHANGING THE NAME OF THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Changes the name of the Department of Community and Economic Development to the Department of Commerce, Community, and Economic Development. (SCS CSHB 288(STA))

Effective Date: September 2, 2004

Chapter 48 CERTIFICATE OF NEED PROGRAM

Deletes the prohibition on relocating an ambulatory surgery facility to a site from which another facility has been removed without a certificate of need. Clarifies some aspects of the term "expenditure" for the threshold triggering a certificate of need requirement and increases the threshold by $50,000 annually for 10 years.

Authorizes the Department of Health and Social Services to require a letter of intent to submit a certificate of need application, requires the department to notify the applicant of the completion of an application, and specifies time standards for processing an application. Adds residential psychiatric treatment centers and independent diagnostic testing centers that were not started before the effective date of the Act to the certificate of need requirement. Requires the department to review applications for residential psychiatric treatment centers under the same standards as those established for nursing homes. (SCS CSHB 511(FIN))

Effective Date: June 5, 2004

Chapter 49 NATURAL GAS EXPLORATION AND DEVELOPMENT AND NONCONVENTIONAL GAS

Authorizes "gas only" leases under the Alaska Land Act. Eliminates the shallow natural gas leasing program and, in its place, extends the conventional oil and gas leasing process to nonconventional gas, supplying a definition for that term, and making exploration and development of nonconventional gas subject to the written best interest finding requirements usually required as part of that leasing process. For activities and operations relating specifically to extraction of coal bed methane, sets out requirements that the Department of Natural Resources shall administer relating to a lessee's posting of a damage bond and lease setback and noise abatement requirements. Makes a series of conforming amendments. Repeals provisions under which the commissioner of natural resources may approve a waiver of local planning authority and requirements relating to compliance by a lessee with local ordinances and regulations. Amends and extends the authority of the Alaska Oil and Gas Conservation Commission as it is to be exercised with respect to nonconventional gas exploration and development. Eliminates an exemption for coal bed methane operations from state-imposed waste material - water discharge permit requirements. Addresses the relationship between nonconventional gas recoverable from coal deposits and coal mining operations. Sets out transitional provisions covering shallow natural gas lease and lease applications in effect or pending on the Act's effective date. (SCS CSHB 531(FIN))

Effective Date: June 5, 2004

Chapter 50 VACANCIES IN THE OFFICE OF UNITED STATES SENATOR AND DEFINITION OF "POLITICAL PARTY" IN THE ALASKA ELECTION CODE

Repeals current provisions for filling a vacancy in the office of United States Senator. Provides that special elections to fill vacancies in the U.S. Senate be held according to the same schedule and procedures as special elections to fill vacancies in the U.S. House of Representatives, with special elections to be held between 60 and 90 days after the vacancy occurs. Provides an exception if there is a primary election within 60 days of the vacancy, or before the vacancy, in the year of a general election at which the office would regularly be filled. Provides for temporary appointments to fill vacancies in the office of United States Senator until a special election is held. Specifies that a senator elected at a special election shall fill the remainder of the unexpired term of the previous senator.

Changes the definition of "political party" to require a group desiring recognition as a political party or a political party seeking to maintain its party status to nominate a candidate who receives at least three percent of the votes cast for governor in a year in which a governor is elected, or to have registered voters equal to three percent of the votes cast for governor, or, in a non-gubernatorial election year, three percent of the votes cast for United States Senator or an equal number of registered voters, or if neither the office of governor nor the office of United States Senator are on the ballot, three percent of the votes for United States Representative or an equal number of registered voters. (CCS HB 414)

Effective Date: Section 9 takes effect November 3, 2004; remainder of Act takes effect September 3, 2004

Chapter 51 LIMITED ENTRY PERMIT BUY-BACK PROGRAM

Provides for the termination of an entry permit buy-back program when the number of entry permits in a fishery has reached the optimum number of permits for the fishery. Provides for the termination of a buy-back assessment when the amount of revenue collected is sufficient to purchase the required number of entry permits and to pay the reasonable costs of the buy-back program, including any repayment of debt incurred to capitalize the buy-back fund. (SB 315)

Effective Date: September 7, 2004

Chapter 52 SALMON ENHANCEMENT TAX

Provides that commercial fishing permit holders will have the option of changing the rate of the salmon enhancement tax to new additional tax rates of 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 15, 20, or 30 percent of the value of salmon that the permit holders harvest in the state. (SB 322)

Effective Date: September 7, 2004

Chapter 53 REGIONAL SEAFOOD MARKETING ASSOCIATIONS

Provides for establishment of qualified seafood development associations in regions of the state. Provides for the establishment of regional seafood development taxes on fishery resources taken within the region. The regional seafood development taxes are levied at the rate of 0.5, 1, 1.5, and 2 percent of the value of the fishery resource within a particular fishery following approval of the tax by the fishermen who would pay the tax. The proceeds of the taxes may be appropriated to provide financing for the qualified regional seafood development associations. (SCS CSHB 419(FIN))

Effective Date: September 7, 2004

Chapter 54 POOLING BY EMPLOYERS AND SELF-EMPLOYED INDIVIDUALS FOR PURPOSES OF GROUP HEALTH INSURANCE

Defines group health insurance to include coverage provided under a policy issued to an association of employers, to self-employed individuals, or to both. Requires the association to have a constitution and bylaws, to exist for the benefit of persons other than the association or its officers, and not to be discriminatory. Limits membership to state residents or to nonresident employers for the benefit of employees in this state. Defines "self-employed individual." (SCS CSHB 10(FIN))

Effective Date: July 1, 2004

Chapter 55 SOLICITATIONS UNDER FAIR TRADE PRACTICES AND CONSUMER PROTECTION PROVISIONS

Incorporates the national do not call registry into the state consumer protection statutes and makes provisions of state law parallel to the federal laws where necessary. Bars the recovery of noneconomic damages by the operator of a vehicle if the operator knew that the vehicle was uninsured at the time the operator was operating the vehicle and the operator was injured or killed. Makes an exception for the recovery of noneconomic damages if the person who is liable for the injury or death was under the influence of alcohol, an inhalant, or controlled substance; acted intentionally, recklessly or with gross negligence; fled from the scene of the accident; or was acting in furtherance of or flight from a felony. Allows insurers to offer optional coverage for punitive damages that might otherwise be recoverable from an uninsured or underinsured motorist. Excludes coverage provided only on an excess or umbrella basis from the definition of "automobile liability insurance."

Chapter 175 STATE DISBURSEMENT METHODS; ALASKA AEROSPACE DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION FUND

With certain exceptions, requires a state agency of the executive branch to disburse money by either of two methods: by electronic funds transfers to an account in a financial institution, or from an account established by the state agency with a financial institution under which an electronic payment card is used to access the money. Does not require a state agency to use these methods if a state or federal law requires another method, if the recipient will be caused substantial hardship, if the number of disbursements is limited to five or an average of five to each recipient, if a vendor or grantee elects not to be paid by these methods, if the disbursement is to a state employee under certain conditions, or if another method is in the state agency's best interest. States that the Alaska Aerospace Development Corporation has custody of the Alaska Aerospace Development Corporation Fund, is responsible for the fund's management, is the fiduciary of the fund, and may invest the fund's money in accordance with the corporation's investment policy. Allows the corporation to make disbursements from the fund in accordance with the new provisions on disbursement methods. Requires that an appropriation made to the fund be transferred from the state treasury to the corporation for deposit in the fund. (SCS CSHB 494(FIN))

FIRST SPECIAL SESSION

Chapter 1 TOBACCO TAX

Raises the license fees for manufacturers and sellers of cigarettes. Requires certain persons to obtain wholesaler-distributor licenses. Increases the number of cigarettes an individual may personally transport into the state for personal consumption. Changes the statutory section on shipping and transporting cigarettes to reflect licensing requirements, changes the criminal penalties for unlawful transportation, and imposes joint and several liability on unlawful shippers for the cigarette tax. Permits the department to limit sales of tax stamps prior to the effective date of a tax increase to minimize the amount of cigarette stockpiling. Provides for replacement of lost or damaged cigarette tax stamps. Changes the bond requirements for deferred payment on the purchase of tax stamps.

Phases in an increase to the additional cigarette tax, raising the tax to 62 mills after June 30, 2007. Provides that a portion of the proceeds of the additional cigarette tax will be deposited into the tobacco use education and cessation fund, and expresses legislative intent to use the fund to provide the minimum amount of tobacco control programs recommended by the federal Centers for Disease Control. Levies an excise tax of 12.5 mills on cigarettes imported or acquired from a manufacturer that is not a participating manufacturer as that term is defined in the Master Settlement Agreement entered into by certain tobacco manufacturers and the state.

Provides for forfeiture of property used in misconduct involving cigarette tax stamps or unstamped cigarettes, and changes the definitions of first and second degree misconduct involving unstamped cigarettes, as well as the definition of unstamped cigarettes. Changes presumptions relating to determination of cost for purposes of unfair cigarette sales. Changes the provision relating to escrow money required of tobacco manufacturers that are not participating manufacturers under the Master Settlement Agreement. (HCS SB 1001(FIN) am H(ct rule fld))
